

Position: Graphic DesignerResponsible:

This role offers the successful candidate an opportunity to gain experience and responsibility in a fast growing software company for the entire online and print output of the company. This is an ideal role for a graphic designer wanting to broaden their skill-set and take their career to the next level.

Location: Dublin 4, Ireland

Languages: English

Primary Responsibilities:

Developing and creating the visual message from concept to final artwork for the marketing department

Interpret existing corporate branding guidelines and adapt for the creation of multiple online and printed assets including: -

Web content

Wide array of online campaign collateral including:

- Ebooks
- Videos
- Webinars
- Infographics
- Product screenshots
- Product demo trials

Printed Content

- Trade exhibition stands
- Corporate merchandise
- Product literature
- Product datasheets
- White papers

Qualifications & Requirements:

- 3- 5 years' design experience in design, either with a design agency or product manufacturer
- Experience of creative design work which should be reflected in your portfolio
- Comfortable working across multiple projects simultaneously
- Previous experience working within a busy office environment
- Experienced user of Adobe Creative Suite – InDesign/Illustrator/Photoshop etc.
- Knowledge and experience of print production processes
- Knowledge and experience of digital production processes
- Typographic knowledge
- Ideally have a third level graphic design qualification